

Keynote speaker

Tom Wohlleber, President, ASBO

Tom Wohlleber has served as a school business official since 1985 in the states of Wisconsin and Arizona. He is currently Chief Financial Officer for the Casa Grande Elementary School District in Casa Grande, Arizona.

Tom has been an ASBO International member for over 30 years and has served as an ASBO International Director from 2013 to 2017, currently serving as the associations President.

Wohlleber has a B.S. degree from the University of Wisconsin - La Crosse with majors in Business Administration and Economics and a Masters degree from the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater in School Business Management.

Tom is a past president of both the Wisconsin Association of School Business Officials (WASBO) and Wisconsin School Safety Coordinators Association (WSSCA). He has received WASBO's two highest honors, the Wallace E. Zastrow Award and Wisconsin School Business Official of the Year. In 2010, he was awarded the Distinguished Professional Eagle Award from ASBO International. Wohlleber was honored by WSSCA as the 2014 Wisconsin School Safety Coordinator of the Year.

Tom serves as a faculty member with the National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research for their Certified School Risk Manager program. He has served on the faculty at Edgewood College and UW-Whitewater in their Educational Administration graduate programs.